Back to School Forms

All students need to have a completed set of medical and school forms on file with our school. We have a basic set of forms which needs to be updated each year. Unless you attended Camp Keetov this summer and submitted new forms for 2011-2012, you will need to fill out these forms whether you are a new student or previously enrolled student. Forms were e-mailed to all families in PDF at the end of July.

If you are a previously enrolled student, we will e-mail you with the date your child's DC Health Certificate and Dental certificate (ages 3 and older) are due.

August 8, 2011

Hello Parents,

We hope that you and your families are enjoying your summer, and are looking forward to the 2011- 2012 school year. The E-T ECC Parents' Committee is planning a lot of wonderful activities and events for the coming school year, and we hope you will join us for the fun.

For those of you new to our school, the E-T ECC Parents' Committee is an organized body of parent volunteers who work with our teachers and staff to raise funds to support our school in many ways. We also serve as a social network and set up opportunities for all parents and families to feel connected to their school community. We look forward to introducing family ice cream socials and happy hours this year so please look for more details in future updates.

This year we are raising funds to support two major initiatives: a "Learning Garden" and playground improvements.

Being involved with the E-T ECC Parents' Committee is a wonderful way to meet new friends and quickly gain a sense of your school community.

Since our parent community includes parents who work inside and outside the home, we have decided to hold only two Parents Committee meetings during the year and conduct the rest of our business via email. Our meetings this year will be right after drop off at on Friday September 23rd at 9:00 am and Friday March 23rd at 9:00 am. We will meet in the conference room next to the administrative office. Children are welcome and breakfast bites and coffee will be provided. We hope you will stop by to hear about our exciting plans for the upcoming year and all the ways – big and small – you can get involved. Current information on committee happenings will also be provided every week through the school's online newsletter "Macomb Musings" so you can become involved at any point during the year.

Our two major events to raise money this year will be the Politics and Prose Book Fair in early November and the Nic-o-bolis Fundraiser in January. Throughout the year the Parents' Committee also supports other activities such as weekly challah delivery, Square One art projects, International Day, and the end-of-year Carnival.

We are looking forward to an exciting year with you. Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions or to begin your involvement. We may be reached at modhutt@gmail.com or jerri.shandler@gmail.com

A Message from the WHC Membership Committee

To our "Young" and Non-member ECC Families:

We are so pleased that you have chosen to send your children to one of our Early Childhood Centers! We know it will be a magical year, filled with fun and learning. For those of you who are not currently members of Washington Hebrew Congregation, we also want to welcome you to our WHC community. We are thrilled to have you in our wider WHC family and want to do everything we can to make you feel at home here.

We hope that in the months and years to come you will consider becoming Fair Share members of WHC and wanted to give you a few facts about membership. While the ECCs at both the Julia Bindeman Suburban Center and Macomb Street and Primary School at JBSC are truly the "shining stars" of WHC -- to borrow an ECC class name -- the Early Childhood program is only the beginning of what WHC has to offer.

I know, personally, what all WHC has to offer. As a young couple, my husband and I joined the Temple and have grown with each lifecycle step we've taken. We have celebrated Brit and baby namings with the Rabbis, sent our three children through the ECC program and religious school, attended joyous holiday and Shabbat services, and participated in Temple's many community service programs. WHC is truly a warm and welcoming spiritual home and community for our family, and we are confident it could be the same for yours.

As a practical matter, membership may be a sensible economic choice. Temple members receive a 14% discount on tuition at both ECC programs. For example, members save more than $1,500 in tuition on the full-day 4s program at Macomb and more than $600 on the 3-day program at JBSC. Enrichment fees are also lower for members and priority registration is given to members for the most popular programs.

As you may know, WHC's standard membership is based on a Fair Share system in which members make an annual contribution to the Temple based on their total family income. Because we know that becoming a Fair Share Temple member may represent a considerable financial commitment, we have developed a program specifically designed to reduce the burden on our young ECC families. Once you identify the proper Fair Share level based on your income, you have four years in which to begin paying the full amount.

If you would like more information about membership or have any other questions, please contact me, nellshapiro@aol.com or (301) 652-7529, or WHC Membership Services Manager Lindsay Fry, lfry@whctemple.org (202) 895-6321. A representative from WHC's Membership will also be at the "Meet Your Teacher" appointments at both ECC locations in September and will be happy to answer your questions then.

Again, welcome to ECC and Washington Hebrew Congregation. We look forward to a wonderful year growing and learning with your family.

Warmly,

Nell

Celebrate the High Holidays with Washington Hebrew Congregation

Welcome to our WHC family! We hope our non-Temple member ECC families will consider getting to know us a little better and join us at Temple for preschool or family services on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

When are our services?

- On Erev Rosh Hashanah, Wednesday, September 28, we will hold a family/preschool service at 7:00 pm
- On Rosh Hashanah day, Thursday, September 29 we will offer several options:
 - Preschool services at 9:30 am and 11:00 am
 - Family service at 2:00 pm
- On Kol Nidre, Friday, October 7, we will hold a family/preschool service at 7:00 pm
- On Yom Kippur, Saturday, October 8, our options include:
 - Preschool services at 9:30 am and 11:00 am
 - Family service at 2:00 pm

Which service might be right for your family? Below is some information to help you choose.

- Preschool services last 35 minutes and are designed for our littlest congregants and their parents. They include guitar music, singing and storytelling to teach about the High Holy Days and the importance of celebrating as a community. Our rabbis and Religious School Music Director, Audrey Katz, lead these abbreviated services.
- Family services are geared toward K-6th grade students and their families. They build on the foundation created by our preschool services, and recognizing the importance of intergenerational worship, these services encourage families to share sacred space. Using High Holy Day prayer books created specifically for elementary school-aged children and their families, services are led by our clergy, Audrey Katz, and our 5th, 6th, and 7th grade students.

We hope you will choose to join us.

Please contact Nell Shapiro, nellshapiro@aol.com with any questions and to reserve your tickets.

A program designed exclusively for non-Jewish moms raising Jewish children

The Interfaith Committee of Washington Hebrew Congregation is happy to announce that our popular Mothers Circle program will be repeated this fall as a three-session evening course.

The course will introduce Jewish practices and ethics in an environment that provides an opportunity to ask questions and have them answered by knowledgeable facilitators. It is a supportive atmosphere with no pressure to convert.

We completed our first Mothers Circle program last May, and it was a very rewarding and educational experience for all the participants. Here are some of their testimonials:

"The class gave me some good ideas on ways to make a more Jewish home for our family, but probably more importantly, it showed me that there are a lot of women in my community who face the same issues and complexities of raising children in a faith other than their own."

"This was a wonderful program that combined instruction on Jewish traditions with emotional support for non-Jewish mothers raising Jewish children."

"I had a wonderful time in Mothers Circle this year; in addition to getting to know everyone in class and receiving wonderful advice, it helped make participating at the Temple less intimidating."

Classes are forming for one evening a month this fall at Temple; the day of the week will be determined by participants and facilitators.

This program is open free of charge to both Temple members and non-members.

For more information, please email Pam Bass, whcmotherscircle@gmail.com.

The Mothers Circle is sponsored by WHC Sisterhood and the Interfaith Committee and is in association with the Jewish Outreach Institute.
